BEACON RANCH
EDUCATION, SERVICE, ADVENTURE

2015 Summer Internship

- Personality requirements: Bright eyed and bushy-tailed, a self-starter, situationally aware, a go-getter, teachable, positive, non-complaining, grateful, rejoicing, get'er done, dependable, faithful, persevering, take-responsibility, clean-cut.
- Must be at least 15 and have reliable transportation.
- Requires a 1 day work trial prior to acceptance.
- Schedule: Schedule will be determined on individual basis and modified for school activities. 1-3 days per week expected. Saturdays are usually minimal. Sundays off.
- Breakfast and lunch foods provided.
- Expectations: like any experience, you will get out of it what you put into it. We have attainable benchmarks, but they require effort and sweat. You will be physically challenged and emotionally engaged. You will know what you did today, why it was important, and feel great about it.
- Non-paid internship. There may be stipends available for work clothes and fuel.
- Beacon Ranch invests heavily in the physical, emotional, and mental needs of this opportunity. This hands on experience will grow a variety of life skills and draw applications from science, math, history, business, economics, marketing, agriculture, environmental stewardship, and so much more.
- Warning: You will be tested and challenged. You will be tired and sore. You will feel proud and accomplished for a job well done. You will know that you made a difference doing work that matters. But, it will not feel good getting there.
- Maximum number accepted: 6
